Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, March 29. Scarcity becomes more pronounced in the wholesale produce market from day to day. Fruits and vegetables are all in very light supply especially those shipped from California. Demand is brisk, and customers are not inclined to haggle over prices, which are higher than have been known for years in Portland.

Even cabbage, of which the supply has been fair all winter, is conspicuous by its absence, and there is no telling when stocks may be replenished, according to dealers. Supplies are due from points adjacent to San Francisco Bay, but wet weather there has retarded picking. The same conditions prevail regarding cauliflower.

Oranges are the only available green fruit to speak of, and the price has gone up to $3.25@3.50 a box, with indications of a further advance as the season progresses.
